

Learning More About LD

Website located under:

Links to Resources _____

Resources for Adults with LD _____

Website Name and URL _____

After reviewing the website that you chose, please comment on each of the following areas by typing in your responses.

Would you recommend this website to others? Yes _____ No _____

Questions	Comments
Who wrote or published the website? Are the institutional affiliations clearly identified? Can you contact the author directly by an easy-to-locate email link?
Is the website Bobby approved? Bobby approval means that the website is designed for easy use by individuals with disabilities.
Can you easily locate the date when the site was last updated? Has it been updated recently? Is the content of the site time-sensitive (i.e. related to news or policy) and if so, is it current?
Is the information provided reliable – is it possible to verify the author’s or organization’s credentials?
Provide an overview of this website by writing a one paragraph review of what kinds of information were provided.
Identify one new piece of information on learning disabilities that you obtained by reviewing this website and that you will be able to use in the classroom or your workplace.	